Over seven albums, multiple EPs, live broadcasts and reissues, the Toronto-based project led by singer-songwriter Tony Dekker has established itself as a beloved indie folk act in Canada and beyond. The CBC has called them “a national treasure” with a sound that is at once familiar and distinct, using the tools of folk music as the starting point to delve deeper. Great Lake Swimmers have been nominated twice for Juno Awards, have been shortlisted for the prestigious Polaris Prize, and won a Canadian Indie Award for Favourite Folk/Roots Artist/Group. They have shared the stage as support for such musical luminaries as Robert Plant, Feist, Daniel Lanois, and Calexico, and have appeared as headliners at many of Canada’s major folk music festivals.

- SPOONS
December 30, 2021 | Doors Open 8:00 pm, Show Starts 9:00 pm
Old Stone Inn Boutique Hotel
Tickets start at $40 each – BUY TICKETS

NIAGARA FALLS TOURISM

Gord Deppe and Sandy Horne defined the sound of pop and New Wave in the 80's, with hits including "Nova Heart", "Romantic Traffic", "Old Emotions" and "Tell No Lies". Their album "Arias & Symphonies" was named one of the 20 Most Influential Albums of The 80's by "the Chart" Magazine, and their song "Nova Heart" was recently included in Bob Mersereau's book "the Top 100 Canadian Singles of All Time". In 2019, Spoons Released a bold new album, "New Day New World", playing on the band's earlier edgy electro-80s sound and evokes the fun, pop sounds of their biggest hits while transporting them firmly into 2019. Four video singles have been released so far: For the First & Last Time, All the Wrong Things (In the Right Places), Landing Lights, and the title track, New Day New World. The retro 80s movement shows no signs of slowing down. Not one bit. And as far as Sandy, Gord, and a lot of fans are concerned, that is a very good thing indeed.

These two new live performances add to the incredible announcements made in the past week with Chantal Kreviazuk (December 27th), David Wilcox (December 29th), Tyler Shaw (December 29th), and Jim Cuddy (December 30th) headlining concerts in Niagara Falls.

Music lovers planning a winter getaway can experience multiple live shows during their visit to Niagara Falls this holiday season and stay in a hotel within walking distance of music venues or a Fallsview room to enjoy a stay overlooking the majestic Falls.

Niagara Falls Music Live is presented by Niagara Falls Tourism in partnership with the Tourism Partnership of Niagara and funding provided by the Government of Ontario.
